

KVNF Airwaves

Vol. 1 July 1, 2007

Welcome to the first edition of KVNF Airwaves, your email newsletter with all the updates of what's happening at KVNF Community Radio.

Meet Daniel Costello

The newest addition to the KVNF Staff is Daniel Costello. Daniel is our new Program Director. Daniel has worked at Colorado Public Radio and KGNU in Boulder. He has re-located to Paonia and full-time on the KVNF Staff. Welcome Daniel!

New Short Feature at KVNF

Mystics Almanac is the newest short feature airing at KVNF. Dr. Judith Boice, author, international teacher, naturopathic physician and acupuncturist, shares insightful information weekly. You can hear Mystics Almanac during One Woman's Perspective, Tuesday nights between 7 and 9:30 pm and again on the Medicine Show, Sunday mornings between 10 am and noon. If you miss it, you can always check out the Mystics Almanac archives.

Belief Systems and Other BS is also being archived now and you can catch it airing on KVNF at 3 pm Thursday during Room To Groove and 7 pm Sunday during In the Classical Tradition.

In case you missed the announcements, Counterspin and Left, Right, & Center have moved from Monday's Midday Edition to Tuesday Midday Edition. Midday Edition airs every weekday from noon to 1:00 pm.

Live Music at KVNF

If you have been listening lately, you have been hearing a lot of live performances on KVNF. With the new facilities and our newest Midday Edition show, Talkin' Music, we have been airing a lot of live music. Talkin' Music is aired from noon to 1:00 pm every Friday with host Smyth Boone. This show has interviews with musicians and often includes a live performance. If you miss any of the shows, no worries, we are archiving Talkin' Music, so you can hear it anytime. The Talkin' Music archives page also has a photo guest book, so take a look at the artists who have been dropping by.

Thanks to Smyth for spearheading this project to get more live music going over the KVNF airwaves.

There have also been lots of live musical performances going on during regular music shows on KVNF. These artists are always pictured in the KVNF Photo Gallery and we have been keeping a physical scrap book of all the artists who have dropped in at the KVNF studios to play. If you are by the station, take a minute to check out the autographed photos in the album at the front counter. Summer in Colorado means music festival time! KVNF supports live music and has a music festival page on our website for you to see a lot of the great events happening this year.

KVNF Website

If you haven't checked out the KVNF Website lately, there are lots of great new features including a KVNF Bulletin Board for KVNF listeners to chat about all things KVNF. Thanks to Paonia.com for hosting this forum for us.

The archives page for Midday Edition shows is currently under construction as we convert the files to mp3 format, so be watching for our new and improved archives soon.

The rumpus room on kvnf.org is the place for KVNF listeners and members to hang out, check out the latest photos, give your feedback and opinions, submit photos, see what volunteer opportunities are available and check out any newsletters you might have missed.

The real rumpus room at KVNF is also starting to take shape. Thanks to Mike Chamness for the fantastic floor painting. If you are near the station, drop in and take a look at the progress.

The latest feature on the website is the adding of the list of new music into the station for the week. You can find this on the New Music page under the top picks of our Music Director, Candy "Sugar" Pennetta. And as always, you can renew your KVNF membership online, sign up your pet for a pet membership (which also gets him/her a unique KVNF pet tag and inclusion in the KVNF pet database in case he/she ever gets lost or found), shop for KVNF t-shirts, hats and mugs, stream KVNF live and see what show is currently airing and what's coming up next.
